LATONIA RECORD BROKEN

MOQUETTE EQUALS THE AMERICAN MARK FOR A MILE AND A SIXTEENTH.

Betting Coup on Joe Jupiter Goes Wrong—Louise S. a Likely Filly—Further Falling off in Ranks of Layers.

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—Moquette showed a return to good form in today's feature race at Latonia, which he won in commanding style. Incidentally he reduced the mile and a sixteenth track record by three-fifths of a second, setting the new mark at 1:44⅖ and equalling the American record for the distance. Moquette was an overwhelming favorite. During the running he indulged All Red with the lead for the first three-quarters, but after making the stretch turn he dashed by the Cella colt and came away to an easy victory. An incident attending the decision of the race was an unsuccessful attempt at a betting coup on Jupiter Joe, which finished third. All sorts of fancy prices were laid at the outset against him, but a steady play forced the bookmakers to cut the odds. He would have been a much sharper factor and might have beaten All Red for second money with a stronger rider.

Louise S. demonstrated that she is a good filly by taking the third race in a canter and in that nearly equaling the track record. Had she been urged she would have easily established a new mark for the distance on this course. Claudia making her first start since her good showing at Lexington, was preferred by many, but whatever chance she had went glimmering when she was almost thrown soon after the start, which mishap had the effect of eliminating her from the running.

Fifteen platers went to the post in the fifth race and the crowding that frequently is seen here when the fields reach large proportions contributed to the victory of Alice George. Aside from being lucky in escaping interference, Alice George showed marked improvement in form. The listless effort of E. Martin on Pal caused the judges to instruct him to refrain from riding in races for the next ten days.

In the opener Gilpy managed to escape the crowding and the circumstance brought him victory as the early advantage he enjoyed enabled him to last just long enough to beat the first-time starter, Ben K. Sleet, by a narrow margin. Jockey Powers had his ankle severely injured by being crowded into the fence while riding Rokeby and was forced to cancel his engagements for the remainder of the afternoon. McNally was the easiest winner of the afternoon. He beat a cheap band of platers in the second race.

There was a further decrease in the ranks of the layers this afternoon, only seventeen reporting for business. There is much complaint on the score of short odds quoted and the timidity of the layers in accepting wagers.

Today's attendance was of goodly proportions, notwithstanding threatening weather just before race time, which deterred many from going to the course. A storm threatened just before the opening race, but it temporarily passed over. After the last race rain began falling steadily.

Fred Cook has gone to his farm in Illinois to spend a few days.

The horses of J. Gaffney, C. Yeager, T. Moore and H. Boone were shipped to Hamilton to be rested until the beginning of the meeting there.

A. L. Kirby has disposed of his interest in Romp. Hughes and other horses owned jointly by him and Frank Respess. The latter took over Kirby's interest.

Warfield is showing some improvement, but it is thought he may not race again until fall.

LAYERS LOST HEAVILY AT TORONTO.

Ring at Woodbine Course Estimated to Have Dropped $200,000 During Meeting Just Ended.

The idea that the simple backers of horses at Woodbine need to be protected against the raids made by the bookmaker on the earnings of the aforesaid simple backers is only one of the many delusions fervently held by those who know little of the turf or its workings," says the Toronto Globe in its review of the splendidly successful spring meeting just ended at Woodbine.

"A well-informed and long-experienced layer of odds, who operated at Woodbine, said to the Globe: 'I believe I am well within the mark when I say that the ring quit the Woodbine meeting $200,000 loser. Forty-nine per cent. of the public choices landed the money and you know what that means to the bookmakers. In all, at different times during the meeting, some 140 different people laid the odds. It wound up with only forty of them doing business on the last day, and I know some of these who were financially distressed at the finish.

"'As for myself, I lost $3,400 in the two weeks and on Saturday my book showed a winning on only one race of the seven. That was the last race of the meeting. I have no complaint, though, nor any growl to register. You had good horses and clean racing and when a man gets an even break he has no kick coming if he loses. When I back my experience and my judgment of the relative abilities of horses against the experience and judgment of another man, I am willing to abide by whatever result is fairly brought about.'

"The largest winning single bet of the meeting was probably that which a Toronto citizen put on Mrs. Livingston's Nod, on the first Friday of the meeting. As he stood undecided in front of a bookmaker, Sam Frank, fingering a bill of unknown denomination, Frank said: 'Come on, be a sport and bet it all. What do you want to back?'

"The citizen wanted to back Nod, and the bill was a fifty. Frank took it and gave him a ticket calling for $1,500 to $50, the price being 30 to 1. When Nod rolled home the backer collected $1,556, and on Saturday night Frank discharged his crew and returned to New York, having left $2,900 altogether of good American money in Toronto."

SUCCESSFUL OPENING AT VICTORIA.

Lieutenant-Governor Dunsmuir of British Columbia and many prominent Victorians occupied boxes at the opening of the sixty-one day summer meeting at Victoria, B. C., last Saturday. The attendance exceeded 6,000, several track records were shattered and all in all the opening was highly auspicious. The winners on opening day included Mattie Mack, Virgie Casse, Redondo, Monvina, Johnstown and Belle of Iroquois.

BARNEY SCHREIBER COMING NORTH.

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—W. A. Kirwan has received word from Barney Schreiber that the latter will come to Latonia at the close of the Houston meeting next Saturday. Besides having done well at booking and with his stable, Mr. Schreiber sold twelve of his horses during the progress of the Texas meetings, and he expects to dispose of ten more ere he leaves for the north.

AMERICAN HORSES UNPLACED.

Paris, France, June 8.—J. E. Widener's Shadow Glance ran in the Prix de Vaudan at St. Ouen today, but failed to get a place. In the steeplechase race Nash Turner's Villegiature started, but did not secure a place.

BRILLIANT RACING AT BLUE BONNETS.

Hanbridge Makes New Track Record, and Fulford, from Same Stable, Equals Another.

Montreal, Que., June 8.—A splendid program furnished excellent sport at Blue Bonnets this afternoon. The card was the best offered since the meeting began and interesting contests resulted. Well-backed horses won a majority of the events, three of the winners being favorites. Besides the Kindergarten Stakes, there was provided as an additional attraction, a steeplechase handicap. William Garth furnished the winner of the stake feature in his sturdy colt, Busy, which again vanquished the speedy Flying Squirrel in handy fashion after a brilliant stretch run. Busy shows more improvement with racing than any other two-year-old in Canada. In his previous start he had defeated a classy band in the Tyro Stakes at Woodbine.

The tabled history of the Kindergarten Stakes is herewith given:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1907	Larikin	109	Diggins	$ 675	1:01⅘
1908	Tony W.	105	A. Weber	675	1:01⅘
1909	Busy	107	Musgrave	1,280	1:01⅘

George Holle's colors were borne to victory twice during the afternoon, Hanbridge and Fulford being from his stable. Both horses showed brilliant form, the former establishing a new track record for six furlongs by running the distance in 1:12⅘, while Fulford equaled the Blue Bonnets mark for seven furlongs when he ran the distance in 1:26⅘. Both Fulford and Hanbridge made runaway affairs of their respective races, and Herbert, the regular stable jockey, was up in each instance.

One of the greatest disappointments of the afternoon was Merman, which was heavily backed to win the second race. In his private trials Merman had outworked Busy. When the break came the colt reared back from the barrier and then proceeded to run out. It was the first time that he had ever gone to the post and he probably needs schooling at the barrier.

Word was received from Sam Hildreth that he would ship Montgomery to Blue Bonnets to fulfill a stake engagement on Saturday.

While being schooled through the field at Blue Bonnets this morning, Spy, a green jumper in Bartlett McLennan's stable, fell and broke his neck.

Red River, which was kicked while at the post on Saturday last and showed lameness for a couple of days, was on the track this morning and galloped soundly.

My Grace, the jumper, is down with fever and probably will not start at the meeting.

The starters in the Kindergarten Stakes this afternoon all carried four pounds more than the weights sent out in the entries. When entries were made to the stake it was with the understanding that the Jockey Club scale would prevail. Since then the association adopted the scale of the recently organized Canadian Racing Associations, which calls for less than the Jockey Club scales. Hence the error in the entries.

J. Reid was engaged to ride both Merman and Mazuma, but as he had not as yet received his apprentice license from the Canadian Racing Associations, he could not accept the mounts. E. Haynes was substituted.

Busy ran his middle quarter in today's race in 23⅖.

Reginald ran away half a mile going to the post and Palmer had great difficulty in pulling him up. This did not help his chances.

H. M. Mason, trainer for W. O'B. Macdonough, was a visitor at the course this afternoon. Mason formerly trained for J. G. Follansbee and owns an interest in a couple of horses that William Cahill is campaigning on the Canadian circuit.

BETTING IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Syndicate Said to Have Been Organized to Handle Commissions on Western Races.

San Francisco, Cal., June 8.—Since the California racing season was brought to a premature close by the operations of the Walker-Otis law, there has been an absence of race track betting in San Francisco. The handbook men have been awaiting the materialization of the plan credited to the racing interests for a proper testing of the new law. It is now said that a poolroom syndicate has been organized, with headquarters in a prominent office building in San Francisco and branches in numerous cigar stores in the city, for the purpose of receiving bets on the outcome of the races at Salt Lake City and Victoria.

The method of procedure, as given out by those claiming to represent the syndicate, will be for the bettor to make his bet at a cigar store at least an hour in advance of the time the horses are supposed to be at the post for that particular race. The name of the horse and amount wagered will then be telephoned to the headquarters of the syndicate. At the conclusion of the day's events the money with which to pay off will be sent to the various places by messenger.

THIRTY LEADING OWNERS.

The feature of the racing of this year so far is the pronounced success that has attended S. C. Hildreth. Last year, for the first time in his long career on the turf, he had stable earnings of over $100,000, and was the first western turfman to reach that distinction. This year his horses have already won over $90,000 and are sure to far eclipse his stable total of last year, $109,965. As a matter of fact, there is quite a lively prospect that he will prove to be the leading winning American owner of 1909, his lead being almost already decisive and his fine racers as capable of making further important accumulations as those in any other important stable. At present the relative standing of the thirty leading owners is as follows:

Owner.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Amt.
S. C. Hildreth	30	32	20	$90,265
H. G. Bedwell	50	34	38	32,673

COLIN AND BALLOT WILL RACE SOON.

New York, June 8.—James R. Keene has received advices from England that Colin and Ballot are progressing favorably in their work and that they will race at Ascot during the meeting to be held June 15, 16, 17 and 18.

CALIFORNIA LAW TO BE ATTACKED.

Arrest Made at San Francisco That Will Furnish Test of Anti-Betting Measure.

San Francisco, Cal., June 8.—A case that comes squarely within the provisions of the Walker-Otis anti-gambling act passed by the California legislature last winter has developed from the arrest of a young man named Charles Adams. The latter was standing on a street corner near police headquarters when two men started an argument on the relative merits of Ketchel and Papke, who are scheduled to fight at Colma, July 5. The upshot was that one bet the other $5 to $2.50 and Adams was asked to act as stakeholder. It is alleged he consented and took the money. It appears that he was observed in the act by M. J. Troy, a collector. Troy immediately repaired to the office of the bond and warrant clerk and secured a complaint upon which Police Judge Shortall, then holding court, issued a warrant for the arrest of Adams. The two men who had made the bet meanwhile walked away, but Adams was found on the corner, placed under arrest and locked up in the city prison in default of bail.

Attorney Carroll Cook, who, some time ago, was retained by prominent sporting men to handle any cases arising from alleged violation of the new law, heard of the arrest and announced that he would defend Adams. Attorney Cook says that a test of the law will be made, as he is informed that the case contains all the elements necessary. Attorney Cook will apply for a writ of habeas corpus in order that the matter may be threshed out in the Superior Court. The question of the constitutionality of the law will be raised. Attorney A. P. Whelan will appear as special prosecutor in the case.

REAL NATURE OF SIR MARTIN'S ACCIDENT.

American Colt Did Not Fall in the Derby, but Stumbled and Threw His Rider.

From reports received by cable the impression was established in this country that Sir Martin had fallen while running in the Epsom Derby. It has now become evident that the colt did not fall but slipped and stumbled in changing his stride on the sharp Tattenham Corner turn, Martin being unseated and falling in front of several of the oncoming horses, one of which, William the Fourth, leaped high in the air while passing directly over him. On the point of Sir Martin not falling Daily Racing Form published the substance of a letter to John Madden from trainer Thomas McCreery recently, in which it was stated the colt did not go down, and confirmatory evidence is now at hand in English turf newspapers. As is usual, Sporting Life had several accounts of the Derby, by different writers, and extracts from their accounts read:

"At the hill top Brooklands began to fall back, and Strickland dashed up to within a length of Louviers, Electric Boy and Minoru being handy, while William the Fourth, Valens, Sir Martin and Bayardo were in a group next, with Sandbath at their quarters. Half way down the hill Sir Martin was crowded in upon and, losing his balance, pecked so badly as to shoot his jockey from the saddle."

"At Tattenham Corner we suddenly missed Sir Martin's colors, and it transpired that he was crowded in upon, and slipped up, and he came around Tattenham Corner riderless."

"From what I hear, the American colt slipped when making the descent to Tattenham Corner and unshipped his jockey."

"The American seat is evidently ill-adapted to the Epsom course, and Sloan, Lyne and now Martin have taken headers and upset the prospects of many others. One extraordinary feature of the race is that at least five or six trainers think that with a little better luck they might have won. Dawson Waugh, who turned out Louviers in truly grand condition, thought he lost a bit at the turn when Minoru was boxed in behind him. William the Fourth and Phaleron were interfered with by the mishap to Sir Martin, Valens was at times somewhat badly placed, and Bayardo (easing up, a good fifth) was short a few gallops through want of rain."

Similarly the Sportsman presents some varying views of the matter, one writer, Allison, saying Sir Martin fell, but he was evidently mistaken. "Skeets" Martin, who was the unlucky victim of the accident, said: "Sir Martin came on his head and knees, and scrambled along for quite a bit. He did not fall. If he had fallen he would have brought down some others. I think he interfered with Higgs and one or two more. I remember hitting the ground and telling the people who crowded round to keep away. Then some policeman came, and I don't remember any more till I found myself back in the weighing room."

Mr. Allison's version is as follows: "As a matter of fact, Sir Martin, which is a somewhat sprawling goer, crossed his legs and fell without interference of any sort or kind. His fall did, however, very materially interfere with Bayardo, which up to that point was, in the opinion of Maher, going as well as anything, and in a lesser degree William the Fourth was impeded, but on such occasions one does not like even to suggest that the result might conceivably have been different."

Finally in the Sportsman "F. C. R." writes: "I happened to be standing at Tattenham Corner when the accident to Sir Martin occurred, and what took place was this: Sir Martin struck into the horse in front of him, his right foreleg hitting the hoof of this animal. This caused him to stumble, and Martin was thrown right over his head and, turning a somersault, landed on the ground on his face, his feet pointing towards the stands. He rolled over twice and then laid quite still, face upwards and arms thrown out. I was the first doctor to attend him and, seeing that nothing could be done there, ordered his removal as quickly as possible on the hand ambulance to the weighing room, an order promptly carried out by the police."

There is one point on which the critics are agreed and that is that up to the time of the accident, Sir Martin was going as well as anything in the race and was evidently being saved in a good position for a supreme effort down the straight homestretch. Whether he would have won or not is now a matter of conjecture, but his formidable chance of doing so is undeniable. It is something to know that the post prices were Sir Martin, 3 to 1; Minoru, 3½ to 1, and Bayardo, 4½ to 1.

LOCATION OF JUAREZ TRACK CHANGED.

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—Matt J. Winn was a visitor at Latonia this afternoon, en route from Juarez, Mexico, to New York, where he goes to get things in readiness for the opening of the Empire City track. Mr. Winn, during his stay in Juarez, shaped matters so that work will soon begin on the plant to be completed there for the opening on Thanksgiving Day. There has been some delay in starting building operations because of a disagreement over land values, but this has been overcome by the purchase of 300 acres of ground in another section of Juarez, more desirable than the location first considered, and within fifteen minutes' ride of the leading hotels in El Paso. Mr. Winn stated that stakes will be announced for the Juarez meeting some time in August. In discussing New York racing Mr. Winn stated that he had favorable reports from James Butler, owner of the Empire City track, and that in all probability five or six more days' racing will be given over the Yonkers course.

RACING MAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—Henry Bollinger, aged thirty-five, of Louisville, Ky., brother of Charles J. Bollinger, a well-known bookmaker and poolroom proprietor, attempted to commit suicide last night by inhaling gas in his room at 1027 Main street, this city. He has been despondent through reverses and lack of funds. He was taken to the Cincinnati Hospital.

HILDRETH KEEPING IT UP

FITZ HERBERT ADDS BROADWAY STAKES TO LIST OF LEADING OWNER'S SUCCESSES.

Son of Ethelbert Overcomes Poor Racing Luck Like High-Class Horse and Is Regarded in Line for Championship Honors.

New York, June 8.—Fitz Herbert encountered enough racing misfortune in the early stages of the Broadway Stakes to have daunted any but a really good horse. That he survived under the circumstances and came on to win easily at the end in fast time for the somewhat cuppy track and unfavorably chilly and windy weather conditions places him directly in line for the three-year-old championship turf honors of the season. With the exception of Fashion Plate the quintette of starters engaged were briskly supported. The play on the favorite was remarkably heavy notwithstanding the virtually prohibitive price and the uncertainty as to his staying the unaccustomed distance. Turncoat, one of the most conspicuous rogues that has recently appeared on the turf, bolted at the start and the bugaboo in the race was thereby eliminated. Marcellus was another supposedly dangerous quantity whose pretensions to stake quality went glimmering in actual contest. The race resolved itself into a two-horse affair between Fitz Herbert and Fashion Plate and the net result of the Broadway's running leaves Fitz Herbert a topnotcher among the three-year-olds, confirms Fashion Plate's claim to handicap class and relegates Turncoat and Marcellus to the selling plater division.

The tabled history of the Broadway Stakes since 1900 is herewith given:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1900	Sarmatian	106	Henry	$2,245	1:49¼
1901	The Parader	121	Landry	1,815	1:49
1902	Old England	108	Bullman	2,340	1:47⅘
1903	Irish Lad	126	T. Burns	3,330	1:47
1904	Bryn Mawr	114	Lyne	3,335	1:49¼
1905	Oxford	116	O'Neill	3,050	1:48
1906	Ormondale	120	Miller	3,540	1:45⅗
1907	Montgomery	115	Radtke	3,550	1:46⅖
1908	Master Robert	110	G. Burns	3,970	1:45⅖
1909	Fitz Herbert	118	G. Burns	1,925	1:47

Elizabethan, King Cobalt, Fitz Herbert, Dreamer and Firebox were each considered winning propositions in their respective races. The failure of the first named spoiled what otherwise would have been a clean sweep of favorites. It was a day of disaster for the layers, who have hardly been vouchsafed a respite from similar experiences since the metropolitan season of racing began.

There were very few withdrawals the card being run off much as originally scheduled. First-class sport resulted. After the Our Hannah upset in the opener the best horses continued to win right down the program. Sanctus inaugurated the sequence of winning first choices in the steeplechase. He made good impressively and clipped four seconds off the track record for the about two miles course. Waterspeed keenly contested the first mile and a half of the cross-country journey and then retired, leaving Sanctus to come home alone.

King Cobalt turned the tables on De Mund in the sprinting handicap. To a difference in the weight adjustment, as well as a probable improvement in the former, this reversing of their previous running was due.

Dreamer scored an easy victory in the fifth race. The old Duryea gelding is one of the most improved horses in training and if he should happen to keep up his winning gait, it may have the effect of hastening his owner's return from France.

An overcast sky and a chilly breeze combined to keep the attendance at Gravesend today down to 6,000. Even at that, it was one of the biggest midweek crowds of the season. Everyone expected President Philip J. Dwyer to announce an extra day's racing in consequence. The size of the crowd has nothing to do with it," said Mr. Dwyer. "I have my doubts as to the advisability of racing oftener than three days a week. I am fearful of overdoing the game. If, however, I should decide on an extra day's racing, it will be on Wednesday of next week."

There is a steeplechase jockey now riding in France who earns a retainer of $25,000 per season. His name is Happerman.

Jockey W. Ott has just left this country for Bombay, India, where he is to ride for Dr. H. C. Bossler.

ED CORRIGAN ON HAWTHORNE VISIT.

Ed Corrigan arrived in Chicago yesterday and took Mrs. Corrigan to Hawthorne. They are guests of Tom Carey, the track's new owner. Mrs. Corrigan stood the journey well and, though still ill and weak, has improved of late and was especially glad to be at the Hawthorne cottage, in which she has spent several pleasant summers. Mr. Corrigan was at the Annex in the afternoon and said that he knew nothing of racing affairs here or elsewhere. He and Mrs. Corrigan will not be here more than a fortnight and will then return to Lexington.

PROSPECTIVE STARTERS IN THE OAKS.

Cincinnati, O., June 8.—Melissa, Floreal, Xarco, Crystal Maid, Gilding Belle, Alice George and Kyronda are accounted likely starters in the Latonia Oaks, which event will be run Thursday. The distance of the race is a mile and a quarter.

AMERICAN YEARLINGS IN IRELAND.

Colonel W. Hall Walker, of Tully, Kildare, who bred and leased to King Edward the Derby winner, Minoru, has two American yearlings at his place in Ireland with which he is highly pleased. They are a bay and chestnut colt by Adam, out of the mares Candle and Musette, bred at the Millstream Stud in Kentucky. W. B. Gilpin paid Andrew Miller and Francis C. Bishop $8,000 for them last fall about the time Adam was sent to France to be sold at auction. Colonel Walker has cut rather a conspicuous figure in British racing. He bred, developed and raced Polar Star, winner of several important races in England a few years back and subsequently sold for a small fortune. His Adam colts have been liberally engaged in two and three-year-old stakes to be run in England next year and in 1911. They will be broken in Kildare and shipped across the Irish Sea next fall to winter in the country in which they are to race.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

E. J. M., St. Paul, Minn. The wager lost.

B. H., Chicago. Your query was fully answered yesterday.

P. S., Toronto, Ont. Since Polls was beaten the wager lost.

C. T. P., Kansas City, Mo. The bet was a draw, there being no coupled price on the entry.

D. L. M., St. Louis, Mo. The wager lost. Carefully explained in Daily Racing Form of June 8.

Oscar G. E., Cincinnati, O. The bet won as a single place bet on Balronia and was void as to the other two races.

Phil G., Winnipeg, Man. Necessarily, such a wager would be a draw for lack of action. The layer has no rights greater than those of the backer.

Time, 24, 48, 1:12⅖ (new track record).
Winner—Ch. c, by Banastar—Debacle (trained by G. Ham).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Hanbridge, a rapid beginner, dashed into a commanding lead on the turn out of the backstretch, was taken under restraint after entering the homestretch and drew away at the end from Jack Parker's challenge. The latter ran a good race and Walsh rode a desperate finish, but his mount tired under him. Gold Find, an ordinary looker, was outclassed by the first two, but ran fairly well.
Scratched—82229^{2}Simcoe, 105; 82232^{3}Purslane, 120; 82161 Descomnets, 105.

82370 SECOND RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (75380—54⅗—2—118.) $400 added. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $330.

Winner—Ch. c, by Armeath II.—Opponax (trained by M. Feakes).

Went to post at 3:12. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Oppar, a rapid beginner, left the barrier with a rush, wore Adonia down before they had gone a furlong and drew away into a long lead after entering the homestretch. Puritan Lad began slowly, but closed up steadily and easily disposed of Adonia in the last quarter. Front Row, a bad actor at the post, delayed the start by refusing to line up and got off poorly, but closed a big gap. Merman propped when the barrier was sprung and then bolted to the outside fence. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Overweights—Oppar, 1 pound; Adonia, 2½; Siscus, 1.

82371 THIRD RACE—7-8 Mile. (75529—1:26⅕—3—90.) $400 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $365.

Winner—B. g, by Lackford—Ocypete (trained by G. Ham).

Went to post at 3:39. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Fulford, favored by good racing luck, dashed to the front directly after the start and, drawing away into a commanding lead, was under restraint all of the last furlong. Gemmell, off forwardly and free from interference all the way, showed more early speed than usual, but tired at the end. Mazuma was pulled up at the start and took the overland route, closed a big gap and finished fast. Dennis Stafford, bumped into at the start and knocked back to last place, also closed a big gap and finished close up. Many Colors ran well and finished gamely. So did Hoyle. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—81397 Ida Reck, 100; 82162^{2}Sensible, 92; 82160^{3}Ballet Girl, 102; 82245 Woolstone, 112.

Winner—B. c, by Galore—Busy Maid (trained by William Garth).

Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Busy was taken back and waited with until straightened out in the homestretch, then moved up with a rush at the furlong post and, after a sharp struggle, shook off Flying Squirrel and drew away at the end. The latter squeezed through next to the rail in the first sixteenth and set a fast pace, but tired when Busy caught him at the eighth post. Megantic, on the outside of the leaders all the way, tired in the final drive. Fauntleroy is a slow beginner. The winner ran a middle quarter in 23⅘. All of the starters carried four pounds more than were sent out in the entries. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

82373 FIFTH RACE—About 2 Miles. Steeplechase. (75209—3:55—8—157.) $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $470.

Winner—B. g, by Waterlevel—Runaway, by Algerine (trained by R. V. Boyle).

Went to post at 4:38. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Waterway did not fence in his usual brilliant fashion, pecked at almost every jump and almost went to his knees several times, but caught Reginald tiring in the last furlong and was going away at the end. Reginald, a very speedy horse and a rapid jumper, went wide at several of the turns and ran away half a mile when going to the post. Harrington is a very green jumper and needs much schooling. Dr. Koch lost his rider at the first jump.

Scratched—(82307)Thistledale, 162; (82233)Expansionist, 153; (82300)Byzantine, 148; 82307 Touchwood, 152.

Winner—B. g, by Woolsthorpe—Extra (trained by P. M. Civill).

Went to post at 5:11. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Creel took an easy lead in the first furlong and ran under slight restraint for the remainder of the way. Lois Cavanagh, jostled about on the first turn, moved up fast on the inside when entering the homestretch, but tired in the final strides. The Earl closed up again in the stretch and was wearing Lois Cavanagh down at the end. Great Jubilee was sharply cut off on the first turn, where he went to his knees. The winner was entered for $750; no bid.

Time, 12⅕, 24⅕, 36, 48⅘, 1:02.

Winner—B. f, by Yankee—Halo (trained by D. T. Winslow).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Our Hannah, after nearest and persistent pursuit to the stretch, saved ground by a close turn and drew out to win luckily. Zacatecas set the pace, but made a wide stretch turn and lost advantage and could not get up again finally. Elizabethan began slowly, but worked through finally with a belated, but fast, stretch challenge. Bedminster, away poorly, steadily improved his position into a fast going and close up fourth. Crossover, well up to the stretch, tired in the closing drive. Dixie Dixon, away very badly, closed an immense gap. Edith Inez finished well up and is promising. Miss Loris showed speed, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—81996^{3}Evening Song, 103; 82222 Eddie Dugan, 106; Motel, 103.

Overweights—Our Hannah, 3 pounds; Elizabethan, 1; Crossover, 1; Black Annie, 2.

82358 SECOND RACE—About 2 Miles. Steeplechase. (75248—3:47—4—130.) $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $415.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Leonards—Harpsichord (trained by E. Peters).

Went to post at 2:58. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Sanctus alternated with Waterspeed as pacemaker for half the journey, then drew out and held sway unextended to the end. Waterspeed led at intervals and was a game contender for the first mile and a half, but succumbed finally. Sandy Creeker fenced poorly and was rearward in the early running, but finished well. Oaklawn ran forwardly for a mile and a half and quit, but is improving. Bell-the-Cat, hopelessly outpaced from the start, fell early.

Winner—Br. c, by Cesarion—Estelle Whitney (trained by J. E. Nash).

Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. King Cobalt got into quick nearest and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker and drew out right at the end. De Mund, from a slow start, ran into the lead and made the running by a wide gap to the stretch, but tired badly in the closing drive. Rialto, from a flying start, was forwardly placed and finished like a cyclone and going fastest of all. Rosimiro, within striking distance from the start, closed a big gap in the stretch. Etherial, steadily improving, is not ready and was an easing up fifth. Royal Onyx, from a poor start, was badly outrun to the stretch, but finished well. Blackford held on well and is promising. Nimbus, away badly, ran a bad race.

Scratched—82220^{2}Restigouche, 129; 81918^{3}Pantoufle, 99; 81086 Waterbury, 105; (82079)Fitz Herbert, 119; 81696 Takahira, 99; 82284 Fleming, 97; (79914)Sir Alvescot, 96; 78025 Black Oak, 93; 71083 De Kalb, 105.

Winner—B. c, by Ethelbert—Morganatic (trained by S. C. Hildreth).

Went to post at 3:56. At post 3 minutes. Start good for all but Turncoat. Won easily; second and third driving. Fitz Herbert, from a slow start and early interference, ran in leisurely pursuit of the pacemakers for the first half, then closed up rapidly on the far turn and drew out decisively midway of the stretch. Fashion Plate drew out in the first quarter and set a stiff pace, stealing a long lead at the half, then succumbed readily to the winner, but was much the best of the others. Petticoat, a brief pacemaker, ran in prominent contention for six furlongs and tired in the closing drive as if short. Marcellus quit after a half of forward running. Turncoat bolted at the start.

Scratched—(82098)Harrigan, 114.

Winner—B. g, by Hamburg—Forget (trained by J. S. Healey).

Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third driving. Dreamer drew out in the first stride and, setting a stiff pace, won all the way under restraint. Norbitt, always prominent, ran a swift closing three furlongs and is extra good. Lad of Langden, from a bad start, had a rough journey, but steadily improved his position into a fast going, but swerving, third. The Squire essayed to outrun Dreamer in the early running and tired badly in the last quarter. St. Joseph, from a slow start, was well up all the way. Rockstone, on the extreme outside at the start, made a wide first turn and closed a big gap under a bad ride. Seymour Beutler ran forwardly for six furlongs and is nearly due. Rio Grande was well up in the early running and retired. Warden can do better. Imitator was virtually left. The winner was entered for $1,700; no bid.

Scratched—82218^{3}Golconda, 98; 82168 Golden Legend, 86; 81753 Witching Hour, 101; 80889 Okenite, 105.

Winner—Ch. c, by Box—Ashes (trained by J. C. Williams).

Went to post at 4:53. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Firebox outbroke and outpaced the others decisively to the stretch, then tired, but finished gamely. Jacquelina, forwardly placed from the start, but surrounded and crowded back on the far turn, closed up rapidly into a fast going second and probably was best. Eddie Dugan ran in nearest pursuit to the stretch and tired, but shows steady improvement. Sandrian ran well for the first half and held on persistently, is promising, but short. Niagara had a bad start, but closed a gap and is a good looker. Relluf, after early prominence, tired. Glopper ran a bad race.

Scratched—82222 Creuse, 105; 82357^{3}Elizabethan, 105; 82222 Colinet, 108; 79701 O'Connor, 105.

Time, 23⅗, 48, 1:01⅘.

Winner—Br. c, by Woolsthorpe—Gillian (trained by J. J. Flannigan).

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Gilpy went into a long lead at once and, escaping interference, led all the way, but tired and just lasted. Ben K. Sleet, much the best, dashed into early contention in a fast sprint and, finishing gamely, would have won in a few strides. Brevite, going wide most of the trip, ran a good race. Banives was shuffled back soon after the start. Rokeby quit after going well for a half. Fighting Bob, almost left, closed a big gap and was going fast at the end.

Scratched—82169 Clysmic, 108; Gallant Pirate, 108.

Overweights—Rokeby, 1 pound.

82364 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. (77920—1:43⅕—3—102.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Br. c, by Albert—Miss McNally (trained by H. Oots).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. McNally ran as if much the best and won as his rider pleased. Denver Girl was in closest pursuit all the way and outstayed Reside in the closing drive for second place. Reside was in a tangle for the first half, but came fast when clear. Quagga finished well. Sir Walter Rollins tired after going three-quarters. Judge Saufley was away slowly and outpaced throughout. Ethel Carr ran into prominence on the stretch turn, but tired in the last quarter. Hasty ran poorly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Denver Girl, 1½ pounds; Sir Irving, 1.

82365 THIRD RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. (82102—53⅘—2—111.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Ch. f, by The Commoner—Mary Agnes (trained by W. Grater).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Louise S., clear of interference and away well, dashed into a good lead in the first furlong and won as her rider pleased. Lotta Creed went well throughout and finished gamely. Alaxie, showing improvement, stood the final drive gamely. Martine H. had the best of the start and showed speed, but failed to stay. Redeem ran a good race. Claudia was knocked far back at the start and came fast in the stretch. Ethelburg was away poorly. Ransack quit after going a quarter.

Winner—B. c, by Ben Holladay—Ruction (trained by W. J. Young).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Moquette followed All Red closely to the last quarter and came away with ease. All Red showed much the most speed for three-quarters, but tired and was a lucky second. Jupiter Joe ran well and finished gamely. Zienap had no mishaps. Dr. Barkley ran poorly and can do better.

Scratched—82293 Gypsy King, 106.

Overweights—All Red, 1 pound; Dr. Barkley, 3½.

Winner—Br. f, by Sain—Yokohama (trained by W. Whalen).

Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Alice George was a close contender from the start and outstayed Tom McGrath in the closing drive. Tom McGrath showed the most speed for five furlongs, but tired near the end. Tom Holland was going fastest at the end and had a rough time in the early running. Ethelda ran a good race and would have been closer up but for bearing out in the stretch. Fireball suffered from interference. Rebel Queen ran fairly well. Jack Right made up ground. Pal got off badly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Zeola, 2 pounds.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance, with weight carried, since January 1, 1908. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

CANADIAN CLERGYMAN'S SENSIBLE VIEWS.

Interesting Description by Toronto Divine of His Experience at Woodbine Races.

Canada, like the mother country, where racing flourishes under royal patronage, is blessed with a liberal and broad-minded clergy, if the following letter from the pen of Rev. J. M. Wilkinson, a prominent Toronto divine, which appeared in a recent issue of the Toronto World, may be accepted as a criterion:

"Acting on the conviction that no speaker or writer can consistently approve or condemn what he has not seen or what he knows nothing about, and acting on the suggestion of the editor-in-chief, we graciously accepted a pass to the races to see the great event of the opening day, the contest for the coveted prize of turfmen, the King's Plate. The pass entitled the holder to 'all club privileges,' and we made good use of it (sorry afterwards when returning with a keen appetite that we hadn't used it at the lunch counter).

"As we are not writing this for competition, to win one of the handsome shields given by the Board of Education to successful public school candidates, but merely for your delectation (?), gentle reader, let us be free to say what we like and say it how we please. To this end, pardon the use of the first person, singular, during the rest of the discussion.

"Somewhat prejudiced against the whole business all my life, because of its gambling associations, I went with keen open eyes to see all the bad I could, without ever thinking of anything praiseworthy being found at a race track. 'Can any good come out of Nazareth,' really? For this purpose I provided myself with two sheets of paper—a small one with this heading: 'Good features, if any, at the O. J. C. meet—What is beneficial to the human race and in the interests of civilization'—a large sheet with this headline: 'The evils of horse racing—What is destructive to morals and should be stopped by legal enactment.'

"If I had the space I would like to elaborate and enumerate all the good and bad effects of this 'great social event of the year' in Toronto, and may we not agree and say of the Dominion?

"Entering by the members' gate, the first place I visited was the 'paddock'—an enclosure I had never been in before. It was crowded with well-dressed gentlemen, nearly all wearing tall hats. My first surprise was recognition. I thought no one would know me there, however much I would be recognized in the 'ring,' but to my surprise I was 'spotted' before I had been there two minutes. I expected to see a lot of 'old sports,' horsemen and plate breeders. There may have been many of that kind, but I saw others whom the public would not regard as 'sports.' The first man that shook hands with me was not of that class—he is a merchant in the city, though a member of the Jockey Club for a score of years. And there were others I knew, representing different walks and callings in life, who mingled with their fellows.

"Fearing that some who did not know me might think I was a spy and misinterpret my mission, I passed into the other enclosure, where the king, in the person of his noble representative, fraternized with his subjects, and here was another and greater surprise in store. Not being dressed for the occasion I hesitated on the threshold, but remembering the subject of my visit I swallowed my pride and sailed in. Such a display of beauty, rare beauty, beauty of face and feature and form, as well as beauty of adornment and dress I have seldom seen in Toronto, or, for that matter, anywhere else. I doubt if the Dominion outside of this fair city could furnish its equal, and if not Canada, surely no place else.

"And not only was it a beauty show, but many of Canada's leading citizens were there for whom honor had won renown and fame had blown her trumpet. Judges, members of parliament, lawyers, leading merchants and even clergymen mingled with the multitudes of the intelligent and fashionable people of this fair Dominion.

"Passing from the members' enclosure to that of the patrons of the play, those who pay the 'one and a half' to see the sport and enjoy the exhilaration; again was I surprised at the refined character of the people who occupied the grandstand or mingled with the throng on the green sward. A jolly crowd it was, but a more quiet and orderly and refined multitude of people I never saw at a holiday gathering. There was, indeed, laughter and hurrahs as their favorite horse approached the winning post, but it was the kind that exhilarates and gives zest to the festive occasion. There was nothing that would offend the most sensitive observer. Anything less would be out of harmony with the glad surroundings and would show a lack of interest in the day's program.

"Summing up these observations, I am forced to admit that no annual event in Toronto is associated with so much beauty and wealth and refinement as was this meet of the Ontario Jockey Club and none so free from the unpleasant associations that too frequently force themselves upon the sensibilities of respectable people and the directors are to be congratulated for this more than for the greatness of the gate receipts or the excellent sport provided.

"A word about the jockeys and their treatment of the horses. Whatever was true of the past history of race tracks, there was a complete absence of the 'inhuman treatment of poor dumb animals' that I have heard and read so much about. This was a pleasing disappointment to me. The horses seemed to want to go—it was to their manner born. With the exception of the last hundred yards there was no urging, apparently. I have seen more 'whipping' in one hour at a country fair than would be seen during a whole week's sport at the Woodbine. People show their ignorance of the history of the turf or the quality of thoroughbreds who talk such twaddle."

STOKES BEST OF AMERICAN JUMPERS.

Howard Lewis Writes Entertainingly of French Turf —Fred Burlew Doing Well.

New York, June 8.—Howard Lewis, Jr., who is training the stable of Joseph E. Widener in France, writes that Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s four-year-old fencer, Stokes, is by all odds the best steeplechaser representing an American stable and the American thoroughbred in the great continental republic.

Here is what Mr. Lewis writes with respect to Stokes' prowess: "Stokes is far the best Yankee horse here now. I am not altogether surprised at his development of class, in spite of his failures on the flat at Saratoga last summer, because I understand he was highly tried as a yearling. He is a corking good looker, an excellent jumper over the French courses, has speed in abundance and can stay. He can beat such horses as Hylas, Mr. McCann, Alfar and Bayonet without half trying.

"My own horse, East River, which ran a mile in 1:39 at Belmont Park last fall, is a quick jumper, but he is not in the class of Stokes. If Stokes were on your side of the Atlantic, I believe he would be regarded the best steeplechaser in the United States."

In speaking of his own horses, Mr. Lewis says that he won with Ambush and Homoselle and lost them both. They were entered in selling races and claimed before the start. Mr. Lewis says the French attitude toward the claiming and bidding up of horses in selling races is vastly different from the American. When a horse has been claimed before a start his owner cools him out after the race and courteously sends him to the claimer's stable. The claimer is supposed to stake the groom to a louis d'or, the equivalent of four dollars in American coinage.

"It is not difficult," Mr. Lewis continues, "to win a selling race, but nearly every sound horse entered in a steeplechase is taken before the start under the French system. I do not object to the system at all and am charmed with French racing. I have won two races with East River, but they were not selling races. I claimed two French horses and lost one of them by running him back in a selling race. I was sorry to lose this horse because I considered him promising. However, there will be other selling races and I expect to get another good one.

"I was not serious, of course, when I recently advised Americans who might be thinking of coming to France to bring a bunch of Ballots and Celts with them. But let me say that if Ballot and Celt were in the stable of a Frenchman who cared anything whatever for 'chasing, they would be put to jumping. The French jump everything they have, and the better the horse the sooner he is taught the art of 'chasing.

"The French course is vastly different from the American. The jumps are so low the horses race through or over them so that ability to jump is not of itself altogether essential. Speed and class are wanted, and I fear that most of the horses I brought over for Mr. Widener are deficient in those qualities. You know, of course, that we Americans are not in the habit of making fencers of horses capable of running first-class flat races. If, however, I had a bunch of good overnight handicap horses—animals that could win races like the Long Island, New Rochelle, Sea Shore, Jerome and Sheepshead Bay Handicaps in America—they would easily hold their own in this country.

"I have given away John M. P., the horse with which Mr. Widener won the Whitney Memorial Steeplechase. He goes to his old home in England. Miss Woodlands, a sister of Percy Woodlands, will use him as a hack and take care of him the rest of his life.

"Fred Burlew is doing well in France, especially with Stokes and the horses of Herman B. Duryea. Rose Noble and Wanda III., two of the Duryea horses with which he has won quite frequently, are of the French breed. Burlew considers the Hitchcock jumper, Stokes, to be a great horse. O'Neill, who is riding for Burlew, is in great form again. He is about as good as any American jockey over here. Mr. Hitchcock has not put in an appearance yet, but we are expecting him any day. When he sees Stokes, I am sure he will be pleased with the horse. He always professed to have confidence in Stokes, and it was he who taught the son of Ogden his a-b-c's in jumping."

Mr. Lewis says that his family is pleasantly situated in quarters at Maisons-Laffitte, and that he has learned enough French to put down a bet when he thinks he is right.

HAS STIRRED UP THE DRY BONES.

President Parkerson's Locke Law Address Before Louisiana Lawyers Commended.

New Orleans, June 7.—"I thought my address before the Louisiana Bar Association at Alexandria was nothing but dry bones," said W. S. Parkerson, president of the association.

From the noise that it has created a large portion of the public at least does not agree with Mr. Parkerson that his address was dry bones. His powerful arraignment of the Locke anti-racing law and the Gay-Shattuck liquor license law has stirred up many hornet nests, both here and abroad in the state.

When Mr. Parkerson characterized the Locke law that exterminated the race tracks as "one of those ethical laws which attempts to make people good by legislation," and again, "it is just as easy to send souls to heaven by legislation," its champions got excited.

When Mr. Parkerson characterized the Gay-Shattuck license bill as a form of prohibition in disguise, the principle of which he opposed, there were others to snatch up the challenge.

So it has developed that the "dry bone" which Mr. Parkerson dictated to his stenographer a few days prior to the opening of the Alexandria convention has stirred the whole state. He admits that he has heard from his Alexandria speech in a good many ways.

"Received many letters?" was asked.

"A good many, yes; some very abusive and offensive, but all of these anonymous. I have received a great many from prominent people commending my stand and applauding it.

"In taking the position which I did regarding the Locke and the Gay-Shattuck laws," said Mr. Parkerson, "I did it after a thorough examination of the laws and after I was fully convinced that no good could flow from them. From my knowledge of human nature I believe the expressions delivered in my Alexandria address are absolutely sound and that this sort of law is an attempt to make people good by legislation, an attempt which has proven as utterly impossible as it is to send them to heaven by legislation."

In view of the general discussion aroused over Mr. Parkerson's address, that portion relating to the Locke law and the Gay-Shattuck law is printed in full:

"Thus I have attempted, in a sort of fashion, to give some idea of the laws which have been enacted for our guidance and government by the wisdom of the legislature of 1908.

"Of all the laws, two stand out most prominently. "One of these is the Gay-Shattuck law, which is a disguised prohibition law.

"The other is the Locke bill for the purpose of abolishing races.

"It is not within my province, nor is it my wish, at this particular place and at this particular time, to get into any controversy with anybody in regard to these two laws; but I feel it to be my duty to say, in a very few words, what appears to me to be the wisdom or unwisdom of this sort of legislation.

"I cannot in any sense agree with the people who contend for prohibition, nor can I in any sense agree with those who have carried the liquor business of Louisiana to the extent which it has reached.

"I do not believe in prohibition, because it is an attempt to deny to the temperate man the proper enjoyment of one of the good things of the world.

"I cannot agree with the other side of the question, because the use of the enjoyment has resulted in an abuse which has brought ruin to families and damage to the state.

"I always have believed, and it is the whole philosophy of the case, as well as all of the other good things of the world, is to do it within certain prescribed limits.

"I am free to say that I believe almost as much about horse races.

"I cannot agree with those good people who would abolish the risking of a stake upon a horse race, because to abolish the risk of a stake upon the result of a race is to abolish the race itself, and, to save my life, I cannot see what harm can come from witnessing the contest for superiority between two good horses.

"And if we are to cut out good sport, good wine, good living, what a dull old place this earth would become. It looks as if Satan had the better of the argument if he is to have all the pleasure, and man to go around with a long face and uplifted eyes.

"So to all this kind of legislation I am utterly opposed. I do not believe that, if it be considered necessary to pass laws which will prevent a man from indulging in the use of liquor because he abuses it, it will result in preventing another man from the temperate and proper use of it. On the other hand, the man who abuses it will get it, and the man who has used it with temperance will resort to subterfuge to get it instead of using it in an open, manly way. Indeed, if it be necessary to put a rope around a man's neck to pull him by a saloon each time he comes in sight of it, you might as well throw him into the river and be done with it. It would be a good riddance of bad rubbish, after all.

"The uplifting of mankind is accomplished by education and not by legislation. Too much paternalism in government is the most dangerous form that you can have in a free republic.

"If it be wise to legislate what you shall drink and whether you shall go to races, or not, it will finally come to pass that the laws will prescribe what you shall wear and what you shall eat. The legislature will make up your bill of fare for each meal.

"After a while the solemn expression of the legislature will be a declaration that a man with black hair must not marry a woman with light hair, and he will be told whom he shall marry and whom he shall not marry. Indeed, followed to their logical conclusion, such laws will wipe out the free agency of the individual and make him an automaton.

"I cannot give my assent to this form of legislation, and I believe it to be my duty as an individual to express my dissent here in this representative gathering of lawyers, convinced that nowhere else, if it can have any influence at all, could the expression do more to bring about a proper appreciation of the situation. I have not wished to hurt any feelings, but that I could not stop to consider. I believe that the people are being lashed to madness, into a sort of religious frenzy, and that every citizen who can consider the matter calmly should do his best to check the wild career.

"Education, not legislation, will make a sober, industrious people.

"Conservatism, not frenzy, will place Louisiana among the foremost of commonwealths.

"In spite of preaching, priest or woman the lawyer has always had the courage of his conviction. Let him preserve that proud boast and be not afraid to stand in the way of all legislation which is not based on sound principles. While others rave, let reason remain enthroned as his king and lawgiver."

NO WATERSPEED-SIR WOOSTER MATCH.

New York, June 8.—Harry Vingut says that he will save Waterspeed for such races as the Greater New York instead of training her for matches with the like of Sir Wooster. "I have no idea," Mr. Vingut declares, "where the story that I intended to race Waterspeed in a special with Sir Wooster originated. Sir Wooster seems to me to be about the best jumper we have hereabouts this spring. I have always liked Waterspeed and she is an honest and reliable mare, but I never considered her good enough to race with a crack jumper." Waterspeed will probably make her debut in the Greater New York.

PRACTICAL POINTING FOR THE CARLTON.

New York, June 8.—August Belmont's Practical, the three-year-old brother to Prisellian, which John Whalen is pointing for the Brooklyn Derby, will probably have his first public trial the coming Saturday in the Carlton. Whalen believes he can get Practical ready for a creditable performance in the Carlton. The Hastings colt wintered satisfactorily at Garnet, S. C., and Whalen would have prepared him for the Belmont Stakes if he had not shipped poorly.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Rio Grande is to be trained for races with gentlemen riders. He has developed into a bleeder.

Max Hirsch is taking plenty of time in getting Spooner ready and will not start him until the Sheepshead Bay meeting.

Bishop is accredited with being a highly tried two-year-old in the stable of John E. Madden. He is a chestnut colt, by Handspring—Musette.

Jimmy Dupee, the steeplechase jockey, who lost out with William Garth at Toronto, has turned up at Gravesend and is looking for mounts as a free lance.

P. S. P. Randolph's Black Oak is on the shelf. He has not appeared for work at Gravesend of late, and there are rumors that one of his tendons has weakened.

Commenting on his sale of Tom Hayward to Nugent Bros. for $1,500, H. G. Bedwell says that all of his horses are for sale at any time a purchaser looms up with the cash and is willing to pay a fair price.

Harry Rites has arrived at Gravesend with a string of nine horses that raced at Jamestown, including Zethus, Critic and Miss Catesby. Henry Flippen has also reached Gravesend with a stable of fifteen horses.

Wintergreen, injured at Louisville during the running of the Latonia Derby Preliminary, is in active training at Latonia again. He is going along satisfactorily and will be ready to face the barrier once more within a few weeks.

Peter Quince, a sprinter that S. C. Hildreth acquired at James R. Keene's weeding-out sale last fall, pulled up lame after a recent work-out at Sheepshead Bay. The horse developed similar trouble in California, and Hildreth was unable to get him to the post all winter.

Ogden Bishop, a brother of Francis C. Bishop, has at Herman B. Duryea's new stud in France a three-month-old suckling by Adam, out of Flirtneer. This youngster is a sturdy colt of fine bone and substance, and is a half-brother to Spooner. Mr. Bishop calls his Adam colt Exile, probably to mark his expatriated state.

Most of the Gravesend stalls are occupied now, and the old course presents a busy appearance of mornings. If the attendance at the track of afternoons continues to improve and the eastern managers agree to have four or five days' racing each week, instead of only three, it will not be a great while until the Sheepshead Bay stables are filled as well.

Frank Gardner has given up the idea of attempting to transfer his Kinley Mack colt, Statesman, to New York from Baltimore. Statesman has not sufficiently recovered from the injury he sustained when he fell in the Preakness Stakes to stand the trip to Sheepshead Bay. Statesman is doing well, but Gardner does not consider it safe to take the plaster cast from his injured leg. Gardner will permit Statesman to remain quietly in his present quarters at Baltimore until fall in the hope that a long rest may restore him sufficiently to make training him again possible.
